- 3. Plaintiff has alleged that Defendant's purchase and sale of toy car products allegedly infringing upon the GM Hummer Marks constitutes trademark infringement and unfair competition under the Lanham Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051, et seq and under the common law.
- 4. Defendant and its agents, servants, employees and all persons in active concert and participation with it who receive actual notice of this Final Judgment are hereby permanently restrained and enjoined from infringing upon GM's Hummer Marks, either directly or contributorily, in any manner, including generally, but not limited to manufacturing, importing, distributing, advertising, selling and/or offering for sale any unauthorized product bearing the GM Hummer Marks, or marks confusingly similar or substantially similar to the GM Hummer Marks, and, specifically from:
- (a) using the GM Hummer Marks or any reproduction, counterfeit, copy or colorable imitation of the GM Hummer Marks in connection with the manufacture, importation, distribution, advertisement, offer for sale and/or sale of merchandise comprising not the genuine products of GM, or in any manner likely to cause others to believe that the Counterfeit Products are connected with GM or GM's genuine merchandise bearing the GM Hummer Marks;
- (b) passing off, inducing or enabling others to sell or pass off any products or other items that are not GM's genuine merchandise as and for GM's genuine merchandise;
- (c) committing any other acts calculated to cause purchasers to believe that Defendant's products are GM's genuine merchandise unless they are such; and
- (d) shipping, delivering, holding for sale, distributing, returning, transferring or otherwise moving, storing or disposing of in any manner items falsely bearing the GM Hummer Marks, or any reproduction, counterfeit, copy or colorable imitation of same.

1	5. The parties have agreed that Defendant shall pay to Plaintiff an amount in
2	settlement of Plaintiff's demand for damages, profits, costs, disbursements, and
3	attorneys' fees based upon Defendant's alleged infringing activities. Plaintiff and
4	Defendant shall bear their own costs associated with this action.
